Happiness consists of two kinds; physical and spiritual. The physical happiness is limited; its utmost duration is one day, one month, one year. It hath no result. Spiritual happiness is eternal and unfathomable

Wings of the Coo

It is with profound sadness that we share the news of the passing of Mr. Oda, our beloved founding director and Sachi's grandfather. At the age of 85, Mr. Oda peacefully left us on June 13th, 2024.

Mr. Oda was more than just a visionary behind the Sachi Foundation; he was a beacon of hope, a guiding light in our effort community, and a cherished friend to many. His tireless dedication to our cause and the countless lives he touched will forever remain etched in our hearts.

His extraordinary efforts to spread happiness were celebrated far and wide, most notably with the Japan Zenko Shou Award. As the president of the Kasai City Lion Club, as a passionate environmentalist, he championed the cultivation of countless trees in both Japan and Australia. Additionally, his dedication to international exchange showcased his commitment to fostering global connections and building relationships.

His life is a testament to compassion, joyfulness, generosity, excellence and unwavering service that our community values. His legacy will continue to inspire and guide us as we move forward in our lines of efforts.

During this difficult time, we extend our deepest condolences to his family, loved ones and Sachi community.

With Deepest Sympathy,
Sachi Community

小田様の人生は、私たちのコミュニティが重んじる思いやり、寛大さ、やさしさ、そして揺るぎない奉仕の精神そのものでした。善行賞に刻まれた小田様の信念は、今後の私たちの活動に大きな励みとなり、私たちの心に永遠に刻まれることでしょう。

小田様のご冥福を心よりお祈り申し上げます。

Prayer for Mr.Oda

He is God, exalted is He, the Lord of loving-kindness and bounty! Glory be unto Thee, Thou, O my God, the Lord Omnipotent. I testify to Thine omnipotence and Thy might, Thy sovereignty and Thy loving-kindness, Thy grace and Thy power, the oneness of Thy Being and the unity of Thine Essence, Thy sanctity and exaltation above the world of being and all that is therein.

O my God! Thou seest me detached from all save Thee, holding fast unto Thee and turning unto the ocean of Thy bounty, to the heaven of Thy favor, to the Daystar of Thy grace.

Lord! I bear witness that in Thy servant Thou hast reposed Thy Trust, and that is the Spirit wherewith Thou hast given life to the world.

I ask of Thee by the splendor of the Orb of Thy Revelation, mercifully to accept from him that which he hath achieved in Thy days. Grant then that he may be invested with the glory of Thy good-pleasure and adorned with Thine acceptance.

O my Lord! I myself and all created things bear witness unto Thy might, and I pray Thee not to turn away from Thyself this spirit that hath ascended unto Thee, unto Thy heavenly place, Thine exalted Paradise and Thy retreats of nearness, O Thou Who art the Lord of all men!

Grant, then, O my God, that Thy servant may consort with Thy chosen ones, Thy saints and Thy Messengers in heavenly places that the pen cannot tell nor the tongue recount.

O my Lord, the poor one hath verily hastened unto the Kingdom of Thy wealth, the stranger unto his home within Thy precincts, he that is sore athirst to the heavenly river of Thy bounty. Deprive him not, O Lord, from his share of the banquet of Thy grace and from the favor of Thy bounty. Thou art in truth the Almighty, the Gracious, the All-Bountiful.

Wings of the Coo

O my God, Thy Trust hath been returned unto Thee. It behooveth Thy grace and Thy bounty that have compassed Thy dominions on earth and in heaven, to vouchsafe unto Thy newly welcomed one Thy gifts and Thy bestowals, and the fruits of the tree of Thy grace! Powerful art Thou to do as Thou willest, there is none other God but Thee, the Gracious, the Most Bountiful, the Compassionate, the Bestower, the Pardoner, the Precious, the All-Knowing.

I testify, O my Lord, that Thou hast enjoined upon men to honor their guest, and he that hath ascended unto Thee hath verily reached Thee and attained Thy Presence.

Deal with him then according to Thy grace and bounty! By Thy glory, I know of a certainty that Thou wilt not withhold Thyself from that which Thou hast commanded Thy servants, nor wilt Thou deprive him that hath clung to the cord of Thy bounty and hath ascended to the Dayspring of Thy wealth.

There is none other God but Thee, the One, the Single, the Powerful, the Omniscient, the Bountiful.

Board of Directors Message

Dear Volunteers, Partners, and Friends of the Sachi Foundation,

The years 2023 and 2024 have gifted us with significant milestones in our journey. However, it is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our dear colleague, founding director, and Sachi's beloved grandfather, Mr. Oda. He was a guiding star and a true Ambassador of Happiness at our foundation.

This year has been marked by remarkable progress. We are proud to welcome Dr. Luis Sanchez to the Discourse Committee. His expertise in international law and his insightful research into the scale free nature of Natural Law as the foundation of global legal system comes at a most opportune time.

We are also honored to announce two new collaborative efforts with the "Indi Center for Youth Empowerment" and Yusaku "Yusu no wa" groups. We have instructed our management teams and Lines of Effort Committee to fully support their initiatives, reflecting our cooperative commitment to spreading happiness for all.

We also congratulate our dear Misa for her award as a New Colombo Plan Alumni Ambassador for the Queensland University of Technology, 2024.

While our Foundation thrives and expands sustainably, we must ensure that our constitution evolves to reflect these advances. Despite the challenges we faced, such as the COVID-19 pandemic and the hacking of our Facebook page, our dedicated volunteers and management team were able to overcome these hurdles.

We recognize the importance of focusing our efforts where they can have the most impact.

This year, we are partnering with festivals, cultural groups, philanthropic organizations, community gardens, and clean-up initiatives. We are equipping our partners with the necessary sponsorship and book publication tools, and we are investing in more language superposition hubs and cultural training centers.

Wings of the Coo

The use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Quantum embedded Technology is also integral to our culture of learning and capacity-building strategy, centered on the unity in diversity of language, thought, and culture. Thank you.

Best Happy wishes,
Board Secretary,
Yae Oda Mojarrabi

Cultivating Collective Joy: The logistics Path to Making Happiness Worldwide

The pursuit of happiness is a universal human right. Every individual deserves to experience joy. Yet, building a logistical path to it often seems elusive. Genuine happiness emanates from a blend of inner and outer spirituality, not merely from material possessions. While wealth, power, and physical beauty bring happiness, they are finite and constrained by societal standards and the nature of passage of time.

They offer only temporary satisfaction and often leave the path to happiness unfulfilled. In contrast, the spiritual nature of happiness provides a sustainable supply chain, allowing one to develop their own spiritual and cultural growth and to contribute to expanding the supply chain for community happiness.

By nurturing our spiritual selves, we access an infinite source of joy that continuously nourishes our souls and enriches our lives far beyond what material wealth alone can offer. By contributing to building the supply chain for the spread of happiness, we can contribute to the relationship processes where happiness of one becomes happiness of all.

Happiness, both individual and collective, rooted in spirituality, is a cornerstone of teachings across all religions, cultures and civilizations. It is attainable through personal growth, self-awareness, and meaningful connections with the transcendent order of the spiritual world. Despite this understanding, many people remain unhappy, raising the question: if we know the path to happiness, why do so many struggle to find it?

Community Happiness and Development

Community happiness is a collective state of well-being derived from the individual happiness of its members. Similar to how cells work together to sustain a healthy body, a community thrives when its members collectively pursue joy and fulfillment. In this state, the joy of one is the joy of all, and the effort of one is the effort of all. This collective state of happiness is fostered by decisions and actions that build momentum for collective, purposeful actions to inspire the world.

Our Foundation offers a unique approach to community happiness, emphasizing self-similar and scale free acts of service and exergy rich purposeful actions.

The Concept of Exergy and First Passage Time

Exergy refers to the energy required for engaging in purposeful service or lines of effort that contribute to community milestones. Sachi Foundation believes that true happiness is akin to a "First Passage Time" challenge for communities—achieving and recognizing the milestones of a flourishing civilization through continuous and intentional collective efforts. This suggests that happiness can be achieved through consistent, meaningful actions that benefit the collective and the world.

A New Perspective on Community Happiness

Amid Sachi Foundation's innovative approach, we find echoes of timeless truths whispered through cultural traditions worldwide. Imagine two souls entwined in love: how do we measure the scale of their affection? Their love can be as boundless as the ocean, flowing with the gradient of their hearts like a river, or serene and contained like a lake.

Wings of the Coo

The scale of their love shapes their emotional harmony, guiding them through the celestial dance of their First Passage, from the dawn of their union to the horizons of their shared destiny. Each drop of exergy they devote to their love, like a sacred offering, becomes a testament to the infinite scale of their affection.

Similarly, in a community, collective happiness flourishes through the scale of purposeful actions and the sublime heights of First Passage milestones achieved by its members. Just as individuals discover joy through spiritual growth and meaningful connections, communities can cultivate happiness by synchronizing their efforts and shared aspirations, weaving a tapestry of collective joy and harmony.

Conclusion

Happiness is both an individual right and a collective responsibility. By embracing the spiritual nature of happiness, cultures can create serene environments where everyone can thrive.

The Sachi Foundation's approach to community development through exergy and First Passage Time offers a promising path to a happier, more inclusive society. Our supportive community can be invaluable in fostering individual and collective happiness. By embracing the reality of exergy and collective efforts, we can maximize joy and celebrate success through cultural unity. This approach makes the pursuit of inner and outer treasures more accessible, promotes capacity building, and helps to streamline the logistics of spreading happiness for all.

Management team (SAMAT) report

Dear Friends,

We wish everyone a very Happy Olympic celebrating time!

We're thrilled to share some exciting updates from Sachi Foundation! Join us in warmly welcoming two fantastic new groups to our efforts: the Indi Center for Youth Empowerment and the Yusku No Wa Group. These dynamic teams are dedicated to supporting vulnerable youth, juniors, and children through engaging programs in Japan and Australia.

We're also delighted to introduce Dr. Luis Sanchez, an international legal expert as our newest member of the Discourse Committee. The arrival and joining of Professor Dr. Sanchez, and his in-depth research work on legal positivism and natural Law system, will also significantly help us better understand the scale-free nature proposal of global hubs of Justice.

Sachi Foundation is continuously growing, thanks to its expanding fleet of high-quality and efficient discourse vehicles, which play a crucial role in building our supply chain and lines of service development. As the quality, range, and scope of our volunteership increase, so does our outreach.

The Ruhi Institute continues to play a pivotal role in enhancing our volunteer programs.

Additionally, the experience of our board member dear Misa traveling to Thailand and Japan through the Australian Government's New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program has greatly aided us in understanding the supply chain management of Cultural festival States, essential for cementing the scale-free order of similitudes.

Our partner, Unity Language center, recently published a work on the quantum nature of Language Superposition Hubs and incorporating the Axial Devotional Groups and Axial Unity Festival of the concept of Flowersides. This aligns with our patterns of spreading happiness.

Wings of the Coo

All of this has been achieved despite a challenging environment for advancing the cause of happiness worldwide. Despite our rising discourse profile, we remind our friends and partners that our rays and lines of efforts are gradual and evolving. Wings of the Coo is one of our communication channels, and we are thankful to the Wings of the Coo editorial team.

We are also grateful to all friends who responded to reviewing our constitution and suggesting changes. We are thankful to our partners, Tennen Saien Community garden for their valuable advice, Unity Language Center for maintaining the directory of cultural Festival states, and for their great inspiration and experience sharing.

Here is the latest news and views from our management team:

News Update: Activities and Announcements from June 2022 to July 2024

Volunteer Meetings and Management

Between June 2022 and July 2024, we held three face-to-face volunteer meetings and two online Zoom meetings. Additionally, we conducted two management team meetings and one board Zoom meeting.

Environmental Initiatives

We participated in Australia Clean Up Days on June 2023.

Publishing Support

We proudly supported our partners by publishing two books and covering the digital publication costs.

Misachi Garden

Misachi Garden in Brisbane, Australia, continues to thrive. This garden is a food forest system that can be initiated in backyards and supported by selling quality seedlings derived from the food forest.

Wings of the Coo

Spiritual Axis Devotional Programs

We have joined the Spiritual Axis Devotional Sunday programs, which are conducted on Zoom every Sunday morning. These programs include culturally based initiatives and presentations.

Japanese Festival Sunshine Coast 2024, And Matsuri Festival, Brisbane

We are going to have a marquee at the Japanese Festival August 2024 on the Sunshine Coast and also at the Matsuri Festival in Brisbane in September.

We also participated in both of these festivals in 2023. Our site was very popular and collected more than 2200 Australian dollars by selling arts and crafts. We are very thankful to our volunteers who worked tirelessly, made the arts and crafts products, and manned our festival sites.

Our Mission

At the heart of our endeavor lies a profound commitment to the advancement of culture and the spread of happiness for all. We believe that a vibrant cultural landscape is the foundation of a thriving society, where creativity, diversity, and cultural and spiritual happiness can be shared and enrich our lives.

Our mission is to cultivate a cultural community that celebrates the richness of cultural expressions, fosters mutual understanding among different cultures and nurtures a sense of world belonging. In this community, the happiness and joy of one are the happiness and joy of all. Fundamental to this mission is the advancement of virtues through discourses that build upon each other, and the purposeful celebratory actions inspired by the concept of Flowersides.

Our strategic initiatives focus on developing supply chains that integrate two pivotal sources of energy: the serene practices of meditation and devotion, and the vibrant realms of arts, crafts, and scientific advancements. By intertwining these elements, we aim to create a holistic approach that nurtures both the heart and mind, fostering a balanced and innovative exergy serene environment.

This fusion not only enriches personal well-being but also drives sustainable progress and creativity of the community, embodying a harmonious blend of tradition and modernity.

We are dedicated to promoting cultural exchange, preserving heritage, and encouraging the growth of new artistic forms and technology ensuring that the cultural tapestry of the world remains vibrant and dynamic and continues to evolve in harmony with science and a cultural learning spirit.

In this way, we hope to create spaces where individuals can flourish, communities can thrive, and happiness can be a universal experience. By championing cultural advancement and the well-being of all through our efforts, we strive for a peaceful world where happiness is not a fleeting moment but a lasting, shared spiritual and cultural reality. This reality pulses through each interaction, each lesson, and each moment of collective effort and joint discovery. Through the Ruhi Institute, we weave a tapestry of shared dreams, where the pursuit of happiness becomes a shared journey, boundless and everlasting.

Wings of the Coo

In the quiet of the soul's deep night,
Virtues bloom in unseen flight.
Like particles that shift and spin,
They wait for life's breath to draw them in.

Compassion, courage, kindness, grace,
In every heart, they find their place.
Dormant or bright, they softly glow
In the quantum dance, their energies flow.

Superposition of the heart,
Where every virtue plays its part,
Alive in states both seen and veiled,
In each soul, their creative power prevails.

Entangled hearts, like stars aligned,
In the Flowerside Tradition, we are entwined.
One person's joy becomes the joy of all,
Their light shared, their shadows fall.

When one heart's glad or sad, the others feel,
This ripple spreads, a force surreal.
The ether's mystery draws us near,
In coherence, our path grows clear.

We walk this journey, deep and wide,
Roots growing deeper on every side.
The First Passage of milestones bright,
Guiding us to wisdom's light.

In this garden, virtues grow,
With every seed and every row.
Patience like a river's gradient flow,
Mountain summits, happiness flows.

The gardener's hand, so soft yet wise,
Encourages each flower to rise.
Through kindness, courage springs,
And from this growth, our spirit sings.

No culture grows in solitude,
Each one nourished, each renewed.
In this quantum field of grace,
Our shared learning finds its flow.

Through consultation, thought, and prayer,
In unity, our hearts lay bare.
Together, in this dance of light,
We align in virtue, in what is right.

The Sachi way, our guiding star,
Leads us forward, near and far.
Through the transcendent ether's flow,
The lamps of our hearts show where to go.

Coherent paths, entwined in light,
In Flowerside's joy, cultures unite.
The tree of learning with roots that extend,
Toward milestones where Time ascends.

So let us tend this garden fair,
With gentle words and joyful hearts.
In every smile, in every tear,
a vow to keep this garden near.

In every soul, a universe,
Of countless wonders to traverse.
Through quantum gardening, we find,
The boundless beauty of the art.

United in Flowersides of delight,
We lift the world into the joyful light.
A tapestry of souls that blend,
In garden of happiness without end.
